Team Ocean Kayak at the Houston Boat Show Houston, Tx

Team Ocean Kayak was on hand again this year at the Houston Boat Show held at Reliant Center in Houston.

Team Ocean Kayak was helping out Austin Canoe and Kayak with their booth and visiting with other sponsors at the event. This is a two weekend, 10 day event that draws a large crowd.

The first weekend benefited from below freezing temperatures which caused consumers to find indoor activities such as the boat show to attend.

This is generally one of the first promotional events of the year and the largest of the boat shows. This event is a good time to get acquainted with new products and their representatives.

Upcoming Events

February 6, 2010 Galveston Trophy Trout tournament

Team Ocean Kayak in American Angler Magazine

Team Ocean Kayak's Jeff Herman was featured in a recent article in American Angler magazine featuring fly fishing from a kayak in Montana. Jeff was in Montana along with the Game On kayak fishing film crew and photographer and friend Kendal Larson. Ken got some great shots of Jeff and the highlight of the trip, a monster brown trout that Jeff caught.

Jeff's no stranger to the print media, his running article in Gulf Coast Fisherman magazine usually keeps him behind the camera. It is good to see Jeff able to show off his fly fishing skills and show once again he knows how to catch big trout on the fly. Jeff currently hold the Texas State body of water record for speckled trout on the fly for the Gulf of Mexico.

Team Ocean Kayak at San Antonio Boat Show San Antonio, TX

Team Ocean Kayak helped out Austin Canoe and Kayak at this years San Antonio Boat show.

From the desk of Captain Filip Spencer
The 2010 San Antonio Boat Show had a record number of people come out each day despite the colder temperatures. The five seminars that I put on had approximately fifty individuals attending each one. Many kayaks were sold over the weekend and I am pleased to say that more Ocean Kayaks were sold than any other brand.

Team Ocean Kayak guest speaker at Paddling Anglers in Canoes and Kayaks meeting Houston, TX

Team Ocean Kayak's Clint Barghi was this month's guest speaker that the Paddling Anglers in Canoes and Kayaks meeting held at REI in Houston.

Most members fish in saltwater because of the proximity of the bays and Gulf to Houston. Kayaks have become the boat of choice because they are easier to maneuver in the frequent winds along the coast. Meetings have included a variety of speakers about fishing and boating as well as crawfish boils and fish fries. But mostly they focus on planning outings and swapping stories about previous adventures over cold refreshments. There is no better place to learn about canoe and kayak fishing the Texas Gulf Coast.

Clint is a frequent contributor to this organization, his seminars usually draw a large crowd based on Clint's experience and tournament success.

Team Ocean Kayak at the Corpus Christi Boat Show

Team Ocean Kayak's Captain Filip Spencer participated in the 54th annual Corpus Christi boat show as a guest of Wind and Wave.

Crowds and sales were good for the weekend as many people are beginning to prepare for spring. The weekend's weather was perfect with highs in the mid 60s and sunny skies.
