Team Ocean Kayak at Houston Boat Show

Team Ocean Kayak's Vincent Rinando and Clint Barghi were on hand at the Houston Boat Show helping out Austin Canoe and Kayak.. Due to the Houston Texan's first home playoff football game, the first Saturday of the show was closed. Huge crowds were waiting at the entrance on Sunday morning ready to get into the show. Vincent was filmed in two videos describing the new features of the Ultra 4.3 and Tetra series from Ocean Kayak.

Warm weather and big crowds on the weekends made for a great show. The big hits of the weekend were the new Ultra 4.3 and Minnkota powered Torque.

Team Ocean Kayak has fished exclusively from the Torque this past winter since October and it has proven to be dependable platform for competitive fishing.

Team Ocean Kayak at Austin Boat Show

Jeff Herman represented Team Ocean Kayak at the 2012 Edition of the Austin Boat show. Traffic increased noticeably from last year, and we suspect total boat sales were higher. ACK had 3 JO boats against the back wall, but only had one Ocean Kayak on the floor, the Torque. The Torque continues to draw interest from many potential customers, more so when they price compare to other motorized and/or pedal driven options from Hobie and other competitors.

In addition to kayaks, Jeff promoted accessories such as Scotty products, Malone racks, paddles, and Costa Del Mar sunglasses. The Austin Boat Show is growing, and Team Ocean Kayak is proud to represent our sponsors in an expanding market.
