Team Ocean Kayak Wins Third Coast Kayak Series Port O'Connor, TX

Team Ocean Kayak's Captain Filip Spencer took home 1st place overall in the Port O'Connor leg of the Third Coast Kayak Series. Sam Rinando placed 2nd in the redfish division and Jeff Herman placed 4th in the redfish division. Sam Rinando also received the prize for the smallest redfish, a pair of Costa Del Mar sunglasses. Team Ocean Kayak increased it's lead for Team of the Year by 36 points over the nearest competition. Captain Filip Spencer increased his lead to 25 points for Angler of the Year. Vincent Rinando, the defending 2008 Angler of the Year is currently in 5th place just 10 points out of second place. Team Ocean Kayak is looking to repeat as Team of the Year and Angler of the Year, with two more venues remaining in this series, things are looking pretty good for a repeat.

Team Ocean Kayak at Wind and Wave Demo Corpus Christi, TX

Team Ocean Kayak's Captain Filip Spencer was on hand for the Wind and Wave paddle demo held at the Packery Channel in Corpus Christi, Texas. Wind and Wave is an exclusive Ocean Kayak dealer in the Corpus Area and a big supporter of Team Ocean Kayak. The weather was beautiful and this event was well attended. The Packery Channel is located right off the highway that leads to the Padre Island National Seashore Beach and is heavily traveled and is located right at the intersection of the highway that leads to Port Aransas and Mustang Island Beaches.

Team Ocean Kayak Place 3rd in Coastline Marine Redfish Challenge Galveston, TX

Team Ocean Kayak's Clint Barghi placed 3rd in the Coastline Marine Redfish Challenge. This was a powerboat tournament held by a guide in the Galveston area. Clint Barghi partnered with Jason Bryant for their third place finish with 12.4 pounds. Jason is a longtime kayak tournament angler himself but traded out the kayaks for powerboats in this competition. The tournament was won by Team Ocean Kayak sponsor Brian Little of Stakeoutstik, congrats to Brian.
