Team Ocean Kayak wins Chorizo Redfish Tournament

Team Ocean Kayak's Clint Barghi and team mate Aaron Stillwagon won the Chorizo Redfish tournament held in Galveston. Heavy rain and winds for the start of this tournament. Clint and Aaron were the only contestants fishing this tournament from a kayak. Clint and Aaron's 14.60lbs defeated all other contestants fishing from powerboats, some using live bait. Clint and Aaron found their fish really early, and spent the rest of the day battling winds over 25mph and rain that came down sideways at times. After the tournament Clint said that although the results were awesome, it rated as one of the 3 worst fishing trips he has ever endured.

Way to stick it out Clint and Aaron. They were rewarded for their hard work with a victory.

Team Ocean Kayak places 3rd in the IFA Rockport

Team Ocean Kayak's Filip Spencer placed 3rd in the final Texas event of the IFA tournament series held in Rockport. The day was full of lightning and rain, but mostly lightning. This really limited the amount of time Fil could safely spend on the water. He got a little more than 3 hours total on the water, but was able to land the largest redfish of the tournament, as well as, a nice trout to give him a 3rd place finish.

Team Ocean Kayak places 3rd in the Galveston Redfish Series

Team Ocean Kayak's Clint Barghi and team mate Aaron Stillwagon pulled off a rarely accomplished feat. They placed in two power boat tournaments from a kayak on the same day. This event is fished by some heavy hitters in the Galveston bay complex. Clint and Aaron were again the only kayakers entered in this event, fishing against anglers in power boats. Contestants can fish either Sabine, Galveston, or Matagorda bay complexes.

Team Ocean Kayak at ACK Paddle Demo Houston

Team Ocean Kayak's Vincent Rinando was on hand for the fall paddle demo held by Austin Canoe and Kayak in the Houston area. Vincent provided introduction to kayak paddle classes both on and off the water on both days to customers signed up for the class. The weather Saturday started out windy and rainy, but cleared up by Sunday and the crowds were very thick on both days.

Vincent was on hand to answer question customers had about the new Old Town Predator, as well as, other Johnson Outdoor kayaks and canoes. We also had the opportunity to take the Predator down to the coast and show it off.

Team Ocean Kayak at ACK paddle demo Austin

Team Ocean Kayak Filip Spencer was on hand for the off the water demo in Austin for Austin Canoe and Kayak. Recent drought in the Austin area had the regular venue shut down. Fil was on hand to answer question and provide kayak fishing seminars during the two day event. This is not the first off the water event for this location, and they are successful and experienced at having them.
